DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 33-35, drawn to a process, classified in class 106, subclass 493.
 - II. Claims 1-33, drawn to an article, classified in class 428, subclass 403.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions Group I and Group II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

During a telephone conversation with Mr. Sluzas on June 20, 2005 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of Group II, claim 1-32. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 33-35 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1,4-8,11-12,17,20-23,26-28,31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Yanagimoto'038.

The Yanagimoto'038 discloses colored infrared- reflecting roofing granules comprising base particles coated with a cured coating composition comprising a binder and infrared- reflecting pigment. See Abstract, column 1, lines 20-40, column 2 lines 1-22, lines 35-42, lines 54-67, column 4, lines 60-67, column 5, lines 1-31, lines 50-67, Example 2, claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 2-3,9-10,13-16, 18-19,24-25,29-30,32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yanagimoto'038..

The applied Yanagimoto'038 references teaches a colored infrared-reflective roofing granules comprising base particles coated with a cured coating composition comprising a coating binder and at least one infrared-reflective pigment as in the above rejections. The Yanagimoto'038 does not specifically teach L value, infrared reflectance or second coating for particles. However, the prior art reference teaches that it is well known in the art that reflection and absorption of the particles should be optimized. See column 1, lines 20-40.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to adjust L value and infrared reflectance of particles, since such would improve heat reflection properties of the roofing material. Also, it would be obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to add additional coatings to particles, since such would magnify the effects of light and heat reflection of such particles.
